

JUSTICE (and humor) FOR ALL

(A monthly humorletter)

August 1996

This HumorLetter contains both clean original humor as well as clean bits of humor that have found their way to me via Email. Many times the original author is unknown so if you read something here that you find very funny it's OK to assume that I wrote it.

You have my permission to reproduce and distribute any items you'd like as well as the entire humor letter just so long as you are doing it for free and not for profit. Enjoy!

Laugh and Learn

Using humor creates a bond between people and reduces conflict.

"Across from John sat Doris who had been called to his collections agency because of non payment of her maternity bill.

"I don't have a car, home or any money. I'm not going to pay. What can you do to me?"

John replied, "We'll have to repossess the baby!"

After a moment they both burst out laughing. The rift between them was bridged by shared laughter.

No longer was she dealing with a faceless institution. Humor made her deal with John as a human being and he was able to workout payments for her.

Humor and Training Tip #1

Old Chinese proverb: "Tell me and I'll forget; show me and I may remember; involve me and I'll understand". Humor gets participants involved.

Humor Tip #1

To remember a joke, try telling it to three people as soon as you can after hearing it.

or

Write down the punch line and then reconstruct the rest of the joke in as few words as possible.

Prayer for Today

So far today, God, I've done all right. I haven't gossiped, haven't lost my temper, haven't been greedy, or grumpy, nasty or self-centered. I'm really glad about that. But in a few minutes, God, I'm going to get out of bed, and then I'm going to need a lot of help. Thank You.
