

JUSTICE (and humor) FOR ALL
(A monthly humor letter) September 1997

This humor letter contains both clean original humor as well as clean bits of humor that have found their way to me via Email. Many times the original author is unknown so if you read something here that you find very funny it's OK to assume that I wrote it. You have my permission to reproduce and distribute any items you'd like as well as the entire humor letter just so long as you are doing it for free and not for profit.- Enjoy! For permission to use any parts of this humorletter in company newsletters please contact Jeff at: jeff@jeffjustice.com. Please feel free to download it to others or cut it up and post it on the bulletin board.- Enjoy!

EDUCATION?

(True answers from grade school test papers)

Syntax is all the money collected at the church from sinners.

The four seasons are salt, pepper, mustard and vinegar.

Water is composed of two gins. Oxygen and hydrogin. Oxygen is pure gin. Hydrogin is gin and water.

A virgin forest is a forest where the hand of man has never set foot.

The general direction of the Alps is straight up.

A census taker is man who goes from house to house increasing the population.

Humor and Training Tip #13

Never apologize for using humor. When someone says, "I'm not very good at telling jokes but they say you should start with one." What I hear is, "I'm not very good at telling jokes but I don't mind boring you folks numb."

Once you've made the decision to use humor, rehearse it and do it with confidence.

Humor Tip #12

The number one sign of burnout is taking yourself too seriously.

For good health you should laugh at least ten times a day and five of those times should be at yourself.

Ad-Libs for Speakers and Trainers

If you give the group wrong directions, say...

"Does everyone understand what to do? OK, now forget it. That was just a test."

or

Now that I see you can follow directions, I'll give you the real ones."

or

"I'm as confused as a cow on astro turf!"

or

"I haven't been the same since that Lazy Boy accident!"
