

JUSTICE (and humor) FOR ALL

(A monthly humorletter) September 1998

This humorletter contains both clean original humor as well as clean bits of humor that have found their way to me via Email. Many times the original author is unknown so if you read something here that you find very funny it's OK to assume that I wrote it.

You have my permission to reproduce and distribute any items you'd like as well as the entire humor letter just so long as you are doing it for free and not for profit.- Enjoy!

Humor Quickies

I can please only one person per day. Today is not your day. Tomorrow isn't looking good either.

Last night I lay in bed looking up at the stars in the sky and I thought to myself, "Where the heck is the ceiling?!"

Show me a man with both feet firmly on the ground, and I will show you a man who can't get his pants off!

Tell me what you believe and I'll tell you where you're going wrong.

Two wrongs don't make a right, but three rights make a left.

Humor and Training Tip #18

Even if you couldn't be funny if your life (or program) depended on it you could still take a lesson from Lucius Burriss of Southern Company Services.

When he needs to drive a point home he plays an audio tape of southern funny man, Jerry Clower telling a story that illustrates his point. He gets the laughs and his participants get the point with long lasting retention.

What pros could you use to punch up your presentations?

Humor Tip #17

Place something humorous on your desk that will help put others at ease. One executive with a large, dark wood foreboding office kept a six-foot Snoopy doll in the corner. It made guests laugh and loosen up while the office seemed less intimidating.

What can you do to de-stress your guests?

Ad-Libs for Speakers and Trainers

When a participant makes a remarkable contribution to the class...

"When I hear a comment like that it's like seeing a perfect behind-the-back pass in basketball."

To transition into an exercise...

"Like Arnold Schwarzenegger says, "You can't build muscles watching my tape."

When you do something really dumb...

"I got straight A's in school. My B's were a little crooked but my A's were straight!"
